

Notice and takedown request

Binsearch is a search engine indexing public Usenet newsgroups over which Binsearch Ltd has no control.

Since no files are transmitted through, nor stored, on our systems, we cannot remove any content that resides on Usenet.

Nevertheless, on the request of copyright holders, and at our sole discretion, we do block individual entries referencing copyrighted material from appearing in our search results.

If you want to request this, please fill in the form below, sign it, and return it to us.

Return address:

Binsearch Ltd
legal@binsearch.info

20-22 Wenlock Road
London
N1 7GU
United Kingdom

Requester

Name

Address

Telephone number (including country code)

E-mail address

Hereby requests that the following entries are removed from Binsearch's search database:

Location of the information

Newsgroup(s):

Name of poster:

Subject line(s):

If the request concerns more than one posting, please provide a list of newsgroups, posters and subjects on a separate page.

The challenged information

Constitutes copyright infringement

Constitutes trademark infringement

Other:

--

Description of the content:

In case of infringement of intellectual property rights

Name of product/trademark

Name and address of beneficiary

(if different from requester)

Other

Other information you consider important

Binsearch Ltd reserves the right to request a judicial judgment before processing this request further.

Should Binsearch Ltd honor the request to remove the information referenced from its search database, I shall indemnify Binsearch Ltd from any claims by third parties regarding this blocking, including all damages and costs suffered or incurred.

Thus filled in truthfully, correctly and fully,

Date:

Name:

Signature: